5. SELECTION AND RANKING PROCESS

The Evaluation Committee, appointed by the Board of the Graduate Program in Ethnic Relations and Contemporaneity, is composed of the following faculty members holding doctoral degrees: Danilo César Souza Pinto (Project Coordinator), Nubia Regina Moreira (PPGREC Faculty Member), Silvana do Nascimento Silva (External Faculty Member, Graduate Program in Science Education and Teacher Training, DCB/UESB), and Ivana Karoline Novaes Machado (graduate student representative, doctoral candidate).

The following criteria will be considered in the selection process:

- (a) Compliance with the eligibility requirements applicable to the candidate, in accordance with the guidelines established by CAPES.
- (b) Adequacy of the documentation submitted by the candidate;
- (c) The candidate's qualifications, the scientific and academic merit of the plan, and its alignment with the theme of the UFRJ/HEI Institutional Internationalization Project;
- (d) Feasibility of the research/work plan within the proposed schedule;
- (e) Suitability of PPGREC/UESB, as the host graduate program and institution, for the implementation of the proposed work plan;
- (f) Assessment of the academic merit of the faculty member's proposal within the field of knowledge of the Research Project;
- (g) Assessment of the Curriculum Vitae, with emphasis on scientific production in the field of XXXX;
- (h) Assessment of the Work Plan, considering its importance and its potential to expand international exchange and cooperation for the (Graduate Program);
- (i) Priority will be given to candidates who have not previously received support for a postdoctoral fellowship in Brazil.
- (j) Affirmative action and promotion of equity: In accordance with applicable legislation and the institutional guidelines of the UFRJ/HEI Network and CAPES, the selection process shall provide for affirmative action measures aimed at promoting equity and diversity. In particular, the implementation of measures encouraging women's participation is recommended, such as multiplier coefficients for specific assessment criteria, especially in fields of knowledge and academic levels in which women have historically been underrepresented, thereby contributing to the reduction of gender inequalities within the Program.

6. SELECTION RESULTS AND RANKING

The final result will be approved by the PPGREC Board and announced according to the schedule below. The final announcement of the selection process results will list the names of all ranked candidates in descending order of ranking.
